nternational	application	No.

PCT/US04/21379

	. III Non-establishment of opinion with regard to novelty, inventive step and industrial applicability
 The q indust 	uestions whether the claimed invention appears to be nevel, to involve an inventive step (to be non-obvious), or to be trially applicable have not been examined in respect of:
	the entire international application
$\overline{\boxtimes}$	claims Nos. 1
کے
heeau:	50:
\boxtimes	the said international application, or the said claim Nos. 1 relate to the following subject matter which does not require an international preliminary examination (spec(f)):
	The claimed invention could not be constructed or implimented
	the description, claims or drawings (indicate particular elements below) or said claims Nos are so unclear that no meaningful opinion could be formed (specify):
\boxtimes	the claims, or said claims Nos. $\underline{1}$ are so inadequately supported by the description that no meaningful opinion could be formed.
\boxtimes	no international search report has been established for said claims Nos.
 	the nucleotide and/or amino acid sequence listing does not comply with the standard provided for in Annex C of the Administrative Instructions in that:
	the written form has not been furnished
	does not comply with the standard
1	the computer readable form has not been furnished

WRITTEN OPINION OF THE INTERNATIONAL SEARCHING AUTHORITY

International application No.

PCT/US04/21379

Box No. VIII	Certain o	bservations on i	the international	application	าก
--------------	-----------	------------------	-------------------	-------------	----

The following observations on the claims, description, and drawings or on the questions whether the claims are fully supported by the description, are made:

Claim 1 is objected to as lacking clarity under PCT Rule 66.2(a)(v) because of the claim is not fully supported by the description. The description does not disclose the claimed invention in a manner sufficiently clear and complete for the claimed invention to be carried out by a person skilled in the art because; no one skilled in the art could enable the claimed invention, because the claimed invention is nearly impossible to construct.
